

The Post Radio Time Table

2 p. m., WMAL—H. W. Prentis, jr., president of the National Association of Manufacturers, delivers the keynote address of his organization's annual convention in New York.

7:30, WRC—Theodore Roosevelt's career as a fighter, both at San Juan Hill and in the White House, has been dramatized for Cavalcade of America by Bob Richards, who wrote the screenplay of "The Ramparts We Watch."

8, WFMD—This two-hour program will not be heard locally for the very good reason that it's A. S. C. A. P.'s first super bomb, of the broadcasters in the current music battle. Irving Berlin, George M. Cohan, Oscar Hammerstein 2d, Ferde Grofe and an endless parade of the country's songwriters have descended upon the hometown of "The Star Spangled Banner's" author, Francis Scott Key. The occasion is the signing of an A. S. C. A. P. contract by WFMD and that station's entrance to the night airing field. WFMD broadcasts on 500 watts and 900 kilocycles.

8, WJSV—Viola Brothers Shore and Louis Solomon have written a drama on reckless driving for Edward G. Robinson and Oana Munson of Big Town.

8, WMAL—Only one newcomer for the Quiz Kids tonight. He's an "A" student whose charting of out-of-the-way places on the globe have made him a geographical whiz.

8:30, WRC—The Duke of Paducah, Whitey Ford, celebrates his second N. B.-C. anniversary on the Plantation Party.

9, WMAL—Lord Lothian, the British Ambassador, makes a half-hour talk.

10:15, WOL—With both eyes on world conflict, Mutual continues its five minutes of the latest news from Selective Service headquarters by Stephen McCormick; this is followed by ten minutes of news from the British capital by John Steele, the web's European chief-of-staff.
