

The Post Radio Time Table

12:30 p. m., WMAL—Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard offers National Farm and Home listeners "A Look Into the Future."

6:15, WJSV—Bill Werber, third baseman for the Cincinnati Reds, takes over for that Miamian, Arch McDonald.

6:15, WMAL—Eating 12 grapes at the stroke of midnight is an old Spanish custom for New Year's Eve. Helen Hiatt describes it and other things from a square in Madrid. It's bad luck to choke on one of the grapes, so be careful!

9:00, WJSV—Raymond Massey plays the leading role in an original play supported by Brooklyn's Self-Employed Actors Association, a group of office workers, elevator boys, grocery clerks and others who offer their theatrical wares on vacant lots. Part of We, the People.

HAPPY NEW YEAR: All the stations, needless to say, are New Year conscious. 11:15, on WJSV, finds Sammy Kaye whipping things up for C. B. S., which plans to follow the newcomer right across the continent until 3 a. m. 11:30, on WRC, will find the Red network picking up watchnight service in New York's Riverside Church, with an address by Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick. 11:55, on WOL, finds the Mutual network in Times Square airing street cries and Guy Lombardo's Orchestra to South America.
