

The Post Radio Time Table

2:30 p. m., WMAL—James S. Kemper, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, asks the Chicago Association of Commerce "What Is Ahead for America in 1941?"

4:15, WOL—"They're Off" goes the cry at Hialeah and can't you see the flamingoes parading on the infield, can't you feel that sunny, blue air, can't you sense the fortunes that hang in the balance? How long, O Cataline?

7:05, WINX—For the tyro typist, there's no more welcome test than this completely business-like feature, What's Your Speed?

7:30, WRC—Who created the political symbol of the GOP elephant? Thomas Nast. And who the Tammany tiger, the Democratic donkey? Tom Nast, again, me buck, and he comes to life in the person of William Johnstone on Cavalcade of America.

8, WRC—Here's a clew to what may happen in the dim distant future, and just a hint to Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe, the physician who brought the five Dionnes into the world. He's speaking to the Quiz Kids and why not hope that the day will come when the Dionnes will form a quiz unit?

9, WRC—Garson Kanin, youthful and brilliantly successful film director, helps Eddie Cantor plan the film career hoped for by one Mrs. Flounder.

9:15, WMAL—Mayor LaGuardia and a group of aviation officials attend the opening of the new $5,000,000 airline terminal on New York's Forty-second Street, just where that famous old restaurant used to be.

10:15, WMAL—Col. Philip B. Fleming, Wage and Hour Administrator of the Department of Labor, touches that sore spot, "The Wage-Hour Law and National Defense."

10:15, WJSV—Joseph E. Davies tells plans of The Gala, dinners, parades and ceremonies attendant upon "The 1941 Inauguration."
