

The Post Radio Time Table

5:15 p. m., WJWX—The Howard Theater's new sepia revue, "Tan Manhattan" boasts a score of promise by Embie Blake and Andy Razaf. The tunes are ASCAP-owned and six of them will be aired this afternoon by members of the cast.

7:30, WJWX—Rebroadcast of last Saturday's ASCAP on Parade!

8, WJSV—Contrary to previous announcements over the air, Edward G. Robinson will not be present at the Birthday Ball celebrations here tomorrow evening and consequently will not "bother" to come down to Washington for his "Big Town" broadcast.

9, WRC—Two noted theatrical folk put in an appearance, one with trade-mark, the other without. Eddie Cantor's banjo-eyes are something he's never without, but no one guarantees that Dorothy Lamour will show up in her sarong when she drops in on Eddie's program.

9, WJSV—Betcha don't know what Pogonotomy is? We had to look it up, but, with Fred Allen, we think you ought to do the same yourself. Or else hear all about it on Fred's program. Wheel!

10:15, WJSV—Gen. Robert E. Wood, chairman of the America First Committee, speaks out in opposition to further aid to Britain.

10:45, WOL—"Resolved: that a permanent union of the United States and the British Commonwealth should be immediately established." Such is the debate scheduled between National and Marquette Universities.
