11:45, a. m. WOL—Mutual is first to open its mikes, at this writing, for the opening of the Seventy-seventh Congress in the chamber of the House of Representatives. WMAL will come in shortly afterwards for this unique event of a militant world.
2 p. m., WMAL—Dr. Walter Damrosch resumes his music appreciation hour, discussing the structure of the classic suite.
3:15, WOL—The Philadelphia Orchestra, Eugene Ormandy conducting, programs the Brahms Concerto in D for Violin and Orchestra, Joseph Szigeti, soloist.
7:30, WRC—Satirist Alec Templeton receives an award from the Chicago Committee for music appreciation.
8, WJSV—Nicolai Gogol's "The Overcoat" has been adapted as an ether vehicle for Henry Hull by Jules Dassin on the Kate Smith program. The ailing Nan Rae and Mrs. Waterfall are replaced by Minerva Pious and Charlie Cantor.
8, WOL—Bob Hope and a galaxy of Californians attended a luncheon of the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis earlier in the day which WOL now rebroadcasts.
8, WRC—Check up a fifteenth birthday on the air for the Cities Service Concerts. Lucille Manners is soloist, having succeeded Jessica Dragonette three years ago after the latter had been the program's star for a decade.

Dragonette three years and the stage comedy, but air censorship will star for a decade. 9:30, WJSV—This was a swell stage comedy, but air censorship will probably dilute it as thoroughly as did screen taboos: "Personal Ap-pearance' with Rosalind Russell and Donald Cook. 9:30, WRC—Martha Scott plays an Arch Oboler drama, "Suffer pearance' with Rosalind Russell and Donald Cook.

9:30. WRC—Martha Scott plays an Arch Oboler drama, "Suffer Little Children."
9:35. WMAL—Elissa Landi, Jill Esmond and Ralph Forbes join Jimmy Dorsey and Mary Small for that new program in which it's possible to get a birthday present, Your Happy Birthday.
10. WMAL—Billy Soose and Tami Mauriello, middleweights, offer the year's first big-time ring battle.
