

The Post Radio Highlights

3:15 p. m., WJSV—A couple of thousand years are spanned when David Ross reads a poem by Sappho, semi-legendary poetess of Lesbos, on Columbia's Golden Treasury of Song.

8:30, WRC—The "Duke of Paducah" will attempt to describe the fine art of panhandling over the Plantation Party Program. Also here are Louise Massey, the Westerners, the Doring Sisters and other regulars.

7:30, WRC—Henry Hull, distinguished star of the stage and screen will bring the personality of William Penn to the radio in the drama, "Voice of the Wilderness, to be presented by the Cavalcade of America."

7:30, WMAL—Blue Network, N. B. C. Senator Henrik Shipstead (Republican), of Minnesota, will speak in opposition to the Lend-Lease Bill.

8:30, WINX—Georgetown's sons meet the boys from George Washington in a basketball game with a lot of local interest, one of the last big games of the year.

9, WRC—Eddie Cantor, whose program has been improving vastly of late, has Humphrey Bogart, bad man of the screen, and Hattie McDaniel, lovable Mammy from "G. W. T. W.," as his guests.

10:15, WJSV—Apparently the Lend-Lease Bill has still a few angles of discussion left, for Senator Scott Lucas of Illinois addresses the radio audience on "The Lend-Lease Bill,—A Move Toward Peace."
