The Post Radio Highlights

2:30 p. m., WOL-The Philadelphia Orchestra, with Eugene Ormandy conducting, will play: Mozart's Marriage of Figaro Overture; Schubert's Symphony No. 7 in C Major; Pelleas and Melisande, by Faure, and the Immolation Scene from Wagner's Gotterdammerung.
7:30, WRC-Violinist Henri Temienka is Alec Templeton's guest artist. He plays Wieniawski's Scherzo Tarantelle. And in the comedy department, Pat O'Malley offers a Lancashire tale with the intriguing title, "'Erbert's 'Obby."
8, WJSV-Boris Karloff, whose "Arsenic and Old Lace" is sold out for a month in advance on Broadway, stars in Robert Louis Stevenson's spine-tingler, "Markheim," over the Kate Smith hour. The story is a pleasant little piece about a ghost who haunts his murderer.
8:30, WRC-Elmer Layden, late of Notre Dame, now the new commissioner of the National Professional Football League, tries his hand at Information, Please.
10, WMAL, and 11, WOL-Two full hours of boxing for fight fans: N. B. C. Blue airs the return bout between Ernie Vigh and Billy Soose, and Mutual takes up the gloves an hour later to broadcast the finals of the Chicago Golden Gloves Tournament.
