Today's Features

ON W.G.N.

[Central Daylight Saving Time.]
 The second round in W.G.N.'s quiz, Play Ask-It-Ball will begin at 7 o'clock tonight with men of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station the contestants. The sailors will attempt to overcome the army's 40-44 margin and again put the navy in the lead. During the seventh-inning stretch, Commander T. Dewitt Carr, new executive officer of the station, will speak. Produced by Paul Fogarty, Play Ask-It-Ball features Jack Brickhouse in the role of quiz pitcher and Jess Kirkpatrick as the umpire.

Com. T. Dewitt Carr.

The Chicagoland Hour will be offered from 9 to 10 p. m.

At 10 a. m. Chuck Acree will present the last of the semifinal rounds of the High School Aces quiz. The four boys who are honor students in Chicagoland high schools and have been victorious in elimination and semifinal rounds of the quiz will participate next Saturday in the final session for the grand prizes.

I Hear America Singing, a choral concert presented in cooperation with the immigration department of the United States department of justice, is scheduled at 4:30 p. m. Today's program will be presented by a 30 voice Ukrainian Cossack a cappella chorus in the studios of W.G.N.
