

The Post Radio Highlights

Changes aplenty today for the daytime listeners—particularly in the serial situations. Joan Harding, WMAL's commentator, switches her half-hour to 1:30, making room for Orphans of Divorce, Amanda of Honeymoon Hill, John's Other Wife and Just Plain Bill in the hour beginning at 11 o'clock. On WOL, Government Girl and Front Page Farrell disappear, shifting Russ Hodges to 1 o'clock for the opening of his sports page. A few other of your standbys also may have been rattled around or completely killed.

9:15 A. M., WJSV.—Nursing is dramatized on the School of the Air.
10:30, WINX.—Mrs. George Pettengill talks with Sylvia Milrod of how Victory Starts at Home.

7:15 P. M., WMAL—Prime Minister Peter Fraser, of New Zealand.
7:30, WRC—"Angel on Horseback," an original story of the Kentucky Mountains, presents Myrna Loy in a starring role on Cavalcade of America.

8, WRC—Brazil's Francisco Mignone is honored with a Telephone Hour salute as Donald Voorhees plays his "Congada."

8:05, WINX—"Democracy at Work." The Rev. Francis McPeck, chairman of the Social Welfare Division, Washington Federation of Churches.

8:15, WOL—An Army doctor discusses physical fitness as it applies to the selective service.

8:30, WWDC—Carl C. Berger shifts his Your Government and Mine to a new station, with aviation high in his first program.

8:45, WINX—Jane Cowl acts Paul Gallico's "The Snow Goose" for the Treasury Star Parade.

11:15, WRC—G. B. Stern's "Gemini," as told by Nelson Olmsted.
