

Hearing Ahead

CVISION

Monday

9:15 a. m., WWDC—Senora de Lazada of Bolivia will talk on the effect of war on children.

10:30 a. m., WINX—Sylvia Milrod originates a new feature on her Victory Starts At Home series to be called "WINX at War."

4:15 p. m., WOL—Bryan Field reports the Charlestonian Handicap from Belmont Park, New York.

8:05 p. m., WINX—N. A. A. C. P., Mr. William Bryant comments on the recent developments in the participation of Negroes in the war effort.

8:45 p. m., WINX—Treasury Presents singing stars Lanny Ross, Genevieve Rowe, Audrey Marsh, and Todd Duncan in musical excerpts from "Showboat."

Tuesday

9:15 a. m., WWDC—Miss Mary Downey will speak on "Women and the War."

7:15 p. m., WJSV—Glenn Miller throws the spotlight on college or university. Marion Hutton, the Modernaires and Ray Eberle are featured in this varied program.

8:05 p. m., WINX—Art Galleries conducted by Ada Rainey. A quiz show on Modern Art. Participants from Majorie Webster School.

9:00 p. m., WJSV—Music, both vocal and instrumental, runs riot and customers run away in the Duffy's Tavern broadcast. Ed Gardner as Archier.

9:05 p. m., WINX—The National Symphony Hour features a program of lighter symphonic works.

Wednesday

3:00 p. m., WWDC—Mrs. Lawrence Kuter, will convey information on the Red Cross Art Exhibit now in progress at the National Gallery of Art.

8:30 p. m., WOL—Quiz of Two Cities—Walter Compton emcees as Washington vies with Baltimore for city quiz honors.

9:30 p. m., WINX—Barring black-outs and tornadoes out Missouri way, the Washington Senators first night game of this season will be broadcast as the Nats meet the St. Louis Browns.

10:00 p. m., WJSV—"Great Moments in Music," broadcast at a new time begins its summer series with a production of "Maytime" by Romberg.

10:05 p. m., WWDC—"The Conscience of America" which is presented under the auspices of the National Conference of Christians and Jews will present Rev. A. W. Gottschall.

Thursday

8:15 p. m., WWDC—Radio's favorite brat, Henry Aldrich, played by Ezra Stone joins the "Treasury Star Parade" appearing in the title role in "Tommy Tucker Patriot."

8:30 p. m., WJSV—"Powerhouse—with Raymond Scott" presents a program of popular and original compositions by the young maestro, who features Dorothy Collins and Billy Leachin solos.

9:00 p. m., WHAL—The "Trial of Edith Cavell" gripping story of the British nurse who became the outstanding heroine of World War I and a martyr to the cause of mercy, will be reenacted during the "Famous Jury Trials."

10:00 p. m., WRC—Stuart Erwin, the screen's typical "trusting soul," plays a similar character when he joins John Barrymore and Joan Davis on the Rudy Valee program.

Friday

6:30 p. m., WJSV—Frank Parker programs a special salute in honor of "Merchant Marine Day." Announcer David Ross reads a salute to the men who work to keep the supply lines open.

8:00 p. m., WRC—Dr. Frank Black conducts a musical variety on the "Cities Service Concert." Music ranging from Hoagy Carmichael's "Stardust" to Bizet and John Phillip Sousa.

8:15 p. m., WOL—Leon Henderson, Price Administrator, will be interviewed on the subject of price control. Theodore Granik guides the discussion on "What Price Victory" program.

8:30 p. m., WRC—Raymond Clapper, Washington commentator becomes a debutant on "Information Please." Oscar Levant, John Kieran, and Franklin P. Adams will continue to both amaze and amuse you.

9:05 p. m., WINX—A Night at the Ballet. Ballet Music from "Aida," "Samson and Delilah" and "The Nutcracker Suite."

Saturday

1:00 p. m., WOL—Children's Scrapbook—Mary Crannon's series for children, a variety show with dramatized stories.

4:35 p. m., WJSV—Ted Husing airs the sixty-seventh running of the Withers. This is for 3-year-olds over a mile course. The purse is $15,000.

7:30 p. m., WRC—A fist fight, murder and a series of baffling clues add up to an exciting detective yarn about a cruel money lender and his victims in Ellery Queen's "Adventures of the Three I. O. U's."