

The Post Radio Highlights

4:30 p. m., WMAL—National track championships. Bill Stern gives the stride-by-stride story of three of the hottest events in the National A. A. U. senior championships direct from the infield at Randall's Island Stadium.

7 p. m., WJSV—Reynolds Packard, former head of the Rome bureau of the United Press, joins the war correspondents who appear on "People's Platform" for an informal discussion of the "Axis State of Mind." Emphasis is placed on the attitude and morale of the people of the Axis nations, rather than their leaders.

7:30 p. m., WRC—First Ellery Queen will have to determine how to get the golf balls, and then the gentleman sleuth and his company in crime detection will hie to a private golf course. There they will piece together clues in the "Adventure of the Golf Murder."

8:30 p. m., WWDC—United States Marine Corps program will feature a dramatization entitled "Saga of Private Smith."

8:30 p. m., WJSV—A physician who collects gadgets that were used by quack doctors as far back as the sixteenth century, and an intrepid woman explorer who searched for, and found, the very rare giant panda, will be among the guest stars on Dave Elman's "Hobby Lobby."

9 p. m., WMAL—Summer Symphony Concert presents Dr. Frank Black directing the orchestra in the second concert of his current series.
