

The Post Radio Highlights

7 p. m., WRC—Fred Waring's huge musical outfit, hardest working of them all in radio, makes ready to begin its fourth year of the "Pleasure Time" series.

8 p. m., WMAL—Trapped in the Temple of the Jaguar by Holy Joe and Soon Ya, the members of Florence Sedgewick's treasure-seeking expedition are confronted with the prospect of horrible death in the "I Love a Mystery" program.

8:30 p. m., WRC—Margaret Speaks, soprano, will offer a quartet of popular requests on the "Voice of Firestone" program. The symphony orchestra under Alfred Wallenstein's baton will round out the broadcast.

9 p. m., WJSV—The adventures of Sugarpuss O'Shea and Professor Bertram Potts are heard on the "Radio Theater" production of "Ball of Fire" when it co-stars Barbara Stanwyck and Fred MacMurray.

9 p. m., WWDC—Elida Morris Cooper presents another of her "Volunteer Camp Shows."

9:30 p. m., WOL—"The Better Half." A new quiz show, inspired by women's activities in the war effort. It's the perennial battle of men against women: Tom Slater, emcee, tries to find out who should wear the pants in the family.

10:05 p. m., WWDC—The American Red Cross presents a program in the interest of its Blood Bank. Mrs. Dorothy Wilson will be the speaker.
