Set Shipbuilding Record

MOBILE, Ala., Jan. 7 (AP)-The S. S. Crow wing, built in record time by Negro workmen at the Alabama Dry Dock and Shipbuilding Company, slipped into the Mobile River late to-day. The 22,000-ton tanker, constructed entirely by Negro craftsmen working under white supervision, was launched six-ty-one days after the keel was laid, breaking the Pinto Island shipyard record by one day.

ice Jam Silences Niagara NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Jan. 7 (P)—The roar of the American Falls was silenced today as the flow of water was reduced to a trickle by ice jams in the upper river. The first in the upper river. The first solid ice bridge of the winter spanned the Niagara from the foot of the Horseshoe Falls on the Canadian side.
