The Clock Returns For Tense Summer

THE CLOCK returns to WNBC starting Friday at 8:30 in the time spot vacated by "We, the People," which is produced by Herbert B. Swope, Jr., started on NBC-TV May 16, 1949, and will be an integral factor of each script, serving as the narrator and controlling the action. Martha Scott of "Our Town" fame, finds her sabatinal leave spent on "The Clock."

Dope Shown As Old Menace

KEEPING PACE with the current years' "March of Time" through the on dope addiction and the sinister outlaw industry that lies behind it on the TV program to be seen tonight at 10 p. m. on WMA-TV.

John Daly will interview Earl Brown, New York City Comptroller and Life Magazine reporter, who prepared the Life picture story on dope, and Ed Mowery, prize-winning newspaperman whose reporting for the Scripps-Horn and newspapers aroused the public to the evils of dope among teen-agers.

Shots made by The March of Time late in 1935 point up the fact that smuggling of narcotics is not a new development, despite current hearings on Capitol Hill.

Arthur Brown and Kristine Miller in "Fools' Paradise" film program, which is a series of films new to TV leads off tonight at 9 on WTOP-TV.
