TV Radio Week

MAKE YOUR THIRD CREASE HERE, FOLDING THE PAGES AWAY FROM YOU

DO NOT FOLD FROM THESE PAGES AWAY FROM HERE, FOLDING THE PAGES AWAY FROM YOU

Sunday Radio Highlights

TODAY'S CONCERT by the Budapest Quartet at the Library of Congress will be heard in Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston as well as here thanks to an arrangement made by station WGMS and the Continental FM Network. The quartet will be heard in these cities. It was announced by R. Robert Rogers, WGMS vice president and Everett Dillard, president of the Continental FM Network who are responsible for the plan. The piano quartets of Dvorak and Brahms and the E major Piano Trio by Mozart make up this afternoon's program, to be broadcast at 3 p. m. from the Coolidge Auditorium of the Library. During the rest of October, four more library concerts will be supplied to the network by WGMS, including a program October 30 honoring the library's benefactress, Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge.
