

Thursday TV Preview

(Today's Best Bets as pre-viewed by TV Key's staff of experts.)

8 p. m.—WRC-TV. You Bet Your Life: Groucho gets off a good crack at the expense of "Red" Saunders, UCLA's football coach. "You've got to be more colorful, Red, or Warners will never film the story of your life. And that would be a severe blow to Pat O'Brien." Also on tap are a lady softball player and a man experimenting with rockets for a trip to the moon.

8:30 p. m.—WTOP-TV. Shower of Stars: "Entertainment on Wheels." Betty Grable, Harry James and Ed Wynn are the stars. You'll see Ed Wynn's famous piano-cycle act and he scores again as a medicine man. Betty Grable has a show boat number and Eddie Mayehoff has moments in a railway station skit. Danny Thomas and cast from "It's a Great Life" also on hand. A lavish show with some good variety numbers.

8:30 p. m.—WRC-TV. Justice: "Express to Disaster." An honest, respectable bank teller is accused of stealing money from the purse of a hysterical woman, on a subway. He is cleared of the charge, but the damage to his reputation and social status is almost fatal. What can he do to clear himself? This answers the question dramatically and contains some useful legal information. With James Daly and June Lockhart.

9:30 p. m.—WMAL-TV. Kraft Theater: "My Son, the Doctor." A first-generation American family, mother and two sons, is dominated by Mother's iron determination to have a son who is a doctor. This is a realistic, pointed dramatic statement of what the results of parental ambition often are. Good script, good cast.
