Previews of TODAY'S TV

Today's best shows as pre-viewed by TV Key's staff of experts at screenings and rehearsals in New York and Hollywood:

Disneyland, 6:30 p. m., channel 7—"Pluto's Day." If you're crazy about Pluto cartoons, Disney has assembled several good ones for you. You'll see the loyal hound fetching a paper, stealing a bone, and frolicking in a hall of mirrors, being adopted as a mother by a brood of chicks, battling chipmunks, and spending an active day at the beach. An hour of animation.

Kraft Theater, 8 p. m., channel 5—A familiar figure in TV drama this season—the Korean vet who squealed to his communist captors—is on view again tonight. In James Lee Barrett's script, he's a cafe owner who gets grim retribution at the hands of a former cellmate. A strong, suspenseful drama, lacking in compassion. Michael Toland and Tom Carlin have the leads.

Ozzie and Harriet, 8 p. m., channel 7—"A Doctor in the House." Doc Williams spends a few days with the Nelsons, and Ozzie suspects a plot to get him to have his tonsils out. Plenty of laughs and the usual fine supporting performance by Frank Cadey as the doctor.

20th Century-Fox Hour, 9 p. m., channel 2—"Man Against Speed," starring Farley Granger and Mona Freeman. Sports-car fans will be thrilled by film clips of two

European races, including about an American racing shots of some spectacular family, out to win a big road crashes. They're interspersed contest. If you get a kick out in an otherwise routine tale of speeding autos, tune in.
