Cameraman Sentenced In Court Picture Case

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., March 11 (AP)—A television cameraman, sentenced to jail today for contempt of court, won release on a writ of habeas corpus.

The action set the stage for a court test of a judge's authority to order destruction of pictures taken outside his courtroom.

A hearing on the issue will be held in Leon County Circuit Court March 20.

City Judge John Rudd held Jack Murphy, cameraman for Tampa Television Station WTVT in contempt because he failed to destroy movie film he had taken of witnesses in a corridor outside the municipal courtroom.

Murphy was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or serve a 30-day jail sentence. Rudd also imposed a mandatory one-hour jail sentence to permit Murphy's attorney, former Gov. Doyle E. Carlton of Tampa, to seek a writ of habeas corpus to set up a test of the City Judge's power to curb picture-taking outside his courtroom.

Neither of the two circuit judges here were in the city, and Rudd extended the mandatory sentence to five hours to permit Carlton time to obtain the writ.

Circuit Judge W. May Walker signed the writ of habeas corpus at Crawfordville where he was holding court.

Walker fixed March 20 for a hearing.

Murphy actually was in custody 3 1/2 hours. He was not put behind bars, however, but remained at the police station in technical custody of Police Chief Frank Stoutamire.

Rudd contended that his jurisdiction extends to the corridor outside his courtroom, because he uses it as a witness room.

French Hotel Rates Cut to Lure Tourists

NEW YORK, March 11 (AP) France announced plans today to attract much-needed American dollars by slashing hotel rates by 15 per cent in half of that nation's 3000 hotels.

Auguste Pinton, French Minister of Public Works, Transportation and Tourism, said the plan would become effective April 1, except for the months of July and August, to American tourists paying their French tabs in United States currency. Pinton is en route to Washington for talks with Commerce and Interior Department officials.

Storms Delay Liner

NEW YORK, March 11 (AP) Heavy storms at sea so delayed the Cunard liner Ivernia that she docked here today a full day late. The liner brought 345 passengers from Le Harve and Liverpool.

It's Puff, Puff, Puff And Away Bette Goes

By Lawrence Laurent

BETTE DAVIS, she of the puckered lips, popping eyes and cigarette puffs, arrives in all her full-blown, heroicized glory on television Sunday night. She starred for the General Electric Theater in a sassy little drama called "With Malice Toward One."

Bette, yes, indeed she did, threatened to shoot a fellow. She delivered some significant lines as though she were about to explode a Cobalt bomb. She paced madly. She glowered and she purred oh, oh, so sweetly.

The reader should not misconstrue these thoughts. There is no complaint about Miss Davis' performance, but rather a description of it. One does not complain about the characters created by Miss Davis, for she never creates a character. She portrays, with neon vividness, none other than that Academy Award winning actress of the silver screen: Bette Davis.

SCRIPTS MUST be subordinated to this dynamic, if somewhat showprow, force. In this particular instance, the less mentioned the script, the greater the compassion.

Playing opposite Miss Davis in this drama was John Baragrey, only slightly out of place with his overly oily manner. He was the fellow who was to be the object of Bette's bullet.

She made him grovel. She made him plead. She was swimming in glory. And, after all this madness—I tell you, madness—Bette walked off into the night; possessor of one bittersweet triumph and ready to return to that gnawing, empty life. (The music swells to an inspired crescendo. Betty puckers her lips, delivers a myopic stare and strolls off into loneliness. The audience sighs, wipes its tears and prepares for the next crisis.)

And never before has the 21-inch television screen seemed quite so small. One must doubt, however, that even one of those 60-foot

Cinema Todd-A-O-rama-scopes would be big enough to contain Bette.

OVER ON NBC, another former motion picture queen was strutting. This was Lana Turner and she was making things lively on "The Bob Hope Show" (NBC, WRC-TV).

Lana sang, without much resonance or tone. Lana danced, without rhythm or grace. In short, she appeared as a reminder of that day when a well-lidded sweeper was the cure here for a sold out movie house.

And, again, one does not complain. One merely recognizes that in this, our brand name society, such things are accepted, acclaimed and applauded.

I've had worse evenings in front of the TV set.

ED SULLIVAN, shame on you. Ed offered a scene from the Broadway comedy, "Holiday for Lovers." He didn't even mention the name of Carmen Mathews, Don Ameche's costar, and a truly exquisite woman.

FINEST COMEDY bit of the television weekend was, Sir Caesar's parody of the TV adventure series, "Sir Lancelot." In Sid's sketch, the show was called "Sir Thanksalot."

Revolt Anniversary Celebrated by Jordan

AMMAN, Jordan, March 11 (AP)—Jordan today celebrated the 40th anniversary of the British-supported Arab uprising of 1917 against the Ottoman Empire.

In a nation-wide broadcast, King Hussein said: "The great revolt has taught us how to rise against injustice and imperialism and to reject foreign subjection and exploitation, and has entrusted us with a message which we are carrying before God and history for the good of the Arab nation and humanity."
