of TODAY'S NETWORK TV

Today's top television shows as previewed by TV Key's staff in New York and Hollywood:

Perry Mason—6:30 p. m.—channel 2—"The Case of the Haunted Husband." A pretty, young thing accepts a lift from a drunken motorist and later is charged with manslaughter. Perry uses such clues as a lipstick stained shirt and a feather to bring matters to a head at the trial.

Perry Como—7 p. m.—5—Como opens with the suggestion, "Let's Make This a Singing Show," and does just that. Perry, Peggy Lee, and Pat Boone sing some of their first hits. Old-timer John Bubbles of the vaudeville team,

Buck and Bubbles, does some soft shoe work and clowns with Perry. [Color.]

Have Gun, Will Travel—8:30 p. m.—2—Paladin comes into a strange town, graciously helps a young lady repack her broken suitcase, and suddenly has the entire town against him. His poise never leaves him, and he comes off a real hero. A pretty good western.

Gunsmoke—9 p. m.—2—A first rate yarn about a squatter who comes to Dodge City for a spree, then discovers his camp was destroyed in his absence. Vaughn Taylor is fine as the squatter who can't eat indoors. You'll like him as much as Marshal Dillon and Chester do.
