Previews of TODAY'S NETWORK TV

Today's top television shows as previewed by TV Key's staff in New York City and Hollywood:

Zane Grey Theater—7:30 p. m.—2—[Repeat]—"A Time to Live." It's revenge again, with Ralph Meeker as a man who has been shot and left for dead, but who comes back to town to settle with his assailants. Julie London plays the love interest.

Phil Silvers—8 p. m.—2—"Bilko Retires from Gambling." Clever story line, but the gag wears thin. The colonel breaks Bilko's spirit by putting him in a rigged poker game, run by famous card magician, Paul Draylin. When Bilko loses, he turns into a defeated old man, and spiritually drags the whole post with him. Silvers' performance as a milk drinking, tired old Bilko is a treat.

M Squad—8 p. m.—5—"Twenty Dollar Plates." Because the police hunt for a set of counterfeit plates unleashes a vicious gangster on their trail, it's only fair that Lt. Ballinger should bring the thug in. Most of the excitement comes from wondering just how many people the gangster's going to rough up before the damage is undone. Average for the series.

Playhouse of Stars—8:30 p. m.—2—"The Town That Slept with the Lights On." Edmond O'Brien plays a syndicated newsmen in a wrought-up town where vigilantes are hunting a murderer. As a reporter, he's not sure the people are after the right man, and he's worried. A rather tense story written by his brother, Liam O'Brien, and directed by Edmond.

Patrice Munsel—8:30 p. m.—7—"It's spring in New York City, and Pat hankers after the country look of Central park, even if she has to get there by subway to the tune of "Manhattan." Steve Lawrence and Pat Carroll join in the songs.

Lineup—9 p. m.—2—"High Fashion Case." A number of salesmen listening to a wire recorder hear of a plot to commit murder—and they're a little startled, to say the least. It's a good beginning, and the action holds up pretty well.

Jerry Lewis—9 p. m.—5—Jerry has George Jessel; an English comic band, the Nit-wits; the Four Dancing Step Brothers, Singer Connie Stevens, and Songwriters Cahn and Warren on hand. There are a few chuckles in Jerry's sketch about things that go wrong on a live TV show, and then he mugs it up in a high school prom bit. Jerry also teaches the Step Brothers how to dance, and Jessel joins him in some old vaudeville routines, after the Nit-wits demonstrate what current vaudeville is like in England. [Color.]
