Previews of TODAY'S NETWORK TV

Tuesday's top television shows as previewed by TV Key in New York City and Hollywood:

Red Skelton—8:30—2—Red goes back to school and finds a teacher [Janis Paige] who wants to marry him. This leads to a lot of nonsense at a costume party, where Red, dressed as a cat, gets drunk and makes passes at a St. Bernard—only this one happens to be all dog, not a pretty teacher in dog costume.

Bob Cummings—8:30 p. m.—5—When one of Bob's blonde girl friends says she'd like to play Shakespeare, Bob answers, "He'd lose." Steve Allen makes his guest appearance and plays it pretty straight.

The Naked City—8:30 p. m.—7—"Burst of Passion." When a hitherto normal citizen picks up a gun and goes about his neighborhood plugging bullets into people, the show promises to be exciting. All it boils down to is some fair photography as the killer is chased thru a deserted Coney Island.

Garry Moore—9 p. m.—2—Eydie Gorme, Tommy Sands, the Jonah Jones Quartet, and Comic Charles Manna have fun singing in the plush gambling casino opener. All of them take turns with solos later on. Garry's wonderful year segment is chock full of 1918 songs.

Theater—9 p. m.—7—"The Bride Possessed." The first show in a new series of dramas, dealing apparently with the supernatural. This one is a melodramatic presentation of the old ghost story standard about a murdered girl who manages to accuse her murderer thru the actions of a living person. It's reasonably well done, and may succeed in cashing in on this network's Tuesday ratings. Harry Townes and Virginia Leith turn in nice performances.
