Previews of TODAY'S NETWORK TV

Tuesday's television shows as previewed by TV Key in New York City and Hollywood:

Cheyenne—6:30 p. m.—7
 "Shadow of a Man." Bronco saves Wayne Morris from a quiksand trap, and is invited to join up with Wayne and his partner. The friendly twosome, it turns out, are involved in a $100,000 stage robbery.

Wyatt Earp—7:30 p. m.—7
 "Kelley Was Irish!" Fair western, and above average for this series. Wyatt quits as Dodge's marshal, Shotgun Gibbs leaves town, and Mayor Kelley appoints a grafting bum as Wyatt's successor.

Peck's Bad Girl—8 p. m.—2
 "Lips That Touch Lip-

stick." This episode is the pilot tape of the series, and it concerns 12 year old Torey Peck who wants to go to a party wearing lipstick. Father Steve Peck is upset about it and deals with his daughter in a reasonable manner. Torey's parents, played by Wendell Corey and Marsha Hunt, are quite capable.

Rifleman—8 p. m.—7
 "A Matter of Faith." Thanks to Royal Dano's performance as an old man with a willow reed who claims he can find water and end a drouth, this one is fairly good.

Red Skelton—8:30 p. m.—2
 "Pretty funny as Red plays San Fernando Red, a real con artist. He's in the market to marry a wealthy woman. San Fernando Red is a fairly new character for Skelton and quite an enjoyable one.

Naked City—8:30 p. m.—7
 "A Little of the Action." Exciting show. A couple of top-flight holdup men hire an old-timer whose nerves are beginning to crack, to drive their getaway car. A perfectly planned job goes sour and the old man ends up with the take. James Barton is fine as the shaky driver, and Simon Oakland and Johnny Seven are equally effective as the hoods: An effective episode.

Garry Moore—9 p. m.—2
 "Show opens with Cut Scout Garry introducing his guest Scout pals [Alan King, Dorothy Collins, and the Dukes of Dixieland.] King is wildly informative in a bit on dogs who trail him off the stage, and Garry offers an amusing report from his clipping bureau. That wonderful year is 1948.

David Niven—9 p. m.—5
 "Day of Small Miracles." Eddie Bracken stars as an ex-stage pickpocket afflicted with arthritis, who tries to take up stealing for real and can't make a go of it. Bracken is splendid, and he gets good support from Alan Reed, Linda Watkins, and Peter Leeds.
