What's the Truth About Psychoanalysis?

• A distinguished authority reviews the Freudian treatment. Only one thing is wrong, he says, "the patients do not get any better." Here in January Reader's Digest is a springboard for discussion: Doctor Eysenck charges psychoanalysts have yet to present convincing evidence!

By popular demand, Rheingold again brings you a story so inspiring that it will be shown 3 different times...

"Silent Night"

presented by DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, Jr.

In color and black and white on the RHEINGOLD THEATRE

"Silent Night" is a television classic, specially produced abroad by Rheingold in its actual setting. It's the story of a young man in 18th century Europe, and the great faith that led him to write the famous Christmas carol.
