Today's Features

ON W-G-N.

[Central Daylight Saving Time.]

The Radio Circus, a variety program for youngsters in which hundreds of boys and girls in the audience participate, will be presented on W-G-N at noon, a new hour, starting today. Each week, as a high point of the circus, a gold trophy is presented to a boy or girl who shows unusual qualities of leadership. Today the award will go to Robert Scanlon who, though blind, has made an enviable record both in scholarship and athletics. Bishop Bernard J. Sheil, founder of the Catholic Youth Organization, will make the award.
