ON W-G-N.

[Central Standard Time.]

Baseball again heads the W-G-N and Mutual Broadcasting system program schedule. Starting at 12:15 p. m., Bob Elson and Red Barber will give an exclusive play by play account of the second world series game between the New York Yankees and the Cincinnati Reds. Highlights and interesting features of the series will be described by Lowell Thomas. Following the series broadcast, at approximately 2:30 p. m., Guy Savage will give a running account of the final innings of the Cubs-White Sox city series game. The broadcast of the first game will originate from Yankee stadium in New York and the broadcast of the Cubs-Sox game from Comiskey park in Chicago.

Bob Elson.

Because of the ball games Young Dr. Malone, usually heard at 1:15, will be offered at noon. The drama will continue to be presented at this time daily while the ball games continue.

Themes from old Vienna will be featured in the concert revue conducted by Henry Weber on W-G-N and Mutual at 9:30 p. m. Miss Kathryn Wiltner, soprano, and William Miller, tenor, will be the soloists. The entire cast will join in the singing of the Viennese numbers, which include "Prince Eugen," "Im Prater Blühen Wieder die Baume," "Wien, Wien, du Stadt Alein," and "Caprice Viennois."
