

TODAY'S RADIO BROADCASTS

Today's Features

ON W-G-N.

[Central Daylight Saving Time.]

Joe E. Brown, movie comedian, will be heard over W-G-N at noon as guest artist on the program Command Performance. Brown will be starred in "Lady in the Moon," an original play written for radio by Basil Heatter, son of Mutual's commentator, Gabriel Heatter. Co-starring with Brown will be Grace McDonald, a young Broadway actress.

Another program in the W-G-N and Mutual Operatic Pop concert series will be offered from 8:30 to 9:30 p. m. The broadcast will be conducted by Cesare Sodero and will feature Elsa Zabraska, soprano, and George Britton, baritone, as soloists.

The Pennant Contenders, usually presented Thursday nights but canceled last Thursday because of the All-Star football game, will be heard at 5:45 p. m. today only. The program is presented each week from the home city of one of the eight first division major league teams. It offers informal interviews with players, managers, and coaches. This broadcast will originate in St. Louis, the home of the Cardinals, where Johnny O'Hara will interview Manager Southworth, First Baseman Johnny Mize, and pitchers Lon Warneke and Clyde Shoun.

At 4:15 p. m., Bryan Field, Mutual sportscenter, will describe the running of the Hopeful Handicap from Saratoga race track.

The W-G-N and Mutual Dance Parade, with music by the orchestras of Mark Russell, Phil Levant, Baron Elliot, Dick Jurgens, Lang Thompson, Dick Shelton, Ray Noble, and Bernie Cummins, will be presented from 9:35 p. m. until closing.
