Previews of TODAY'S NETWORK TV

Friday's top television shows as previewed by TV Key's staff in New York City and Hollywood:

Walt Disney Presents—7 p. m. — channel 7 — "The Slaughter Trail." Another "true life adventure" of Texas John Slaughter. Our hero is not satisfied with the standard mode of driving cattle to market, and decides to blaze his own trail thru Comanche territory. Routine heroics, but the last 20 minutes, when John is accused of rustling, are absorbing

Phil Silvers—8 p. m.—2—"Bilko's Ape Man." A few funny moments, but this episode is a bit too confusing. It starts out with Ernie trying to get a new member of the platoon selected as the new Tarzan, and ends up with Col. Hall alerting the post to track down Doberman, who's dressed as a gorilla. Ernie hires some crazy gal to do take screams for him. It's just a two minute bit, but your previewer predicts great things for this screamer. Her name is Lucy Ricardo, or something like that.

M Squad—8 p. m.—5—"The Harpies." Ballinger plays target again. This time it's a lady ex-con and her mentally warped daughter who are out to get him. Luckily, the women are participants in the very case Ballinger is trying to solve.

so he does his duty with a minimum of fuss.

Tombstone Territory—8 p. m.—7—"Marked for Murder." Good western with a nicely drawn-out "high noon" duel at the end. When the brainy half of a two man hired killer team wanders innocently into Tombstone, Clay immediately knows a man is marked for murder. The intended victim turns out to be his friend, the editor. Neatly directed and paced.
