Tuesday on radio—humming into a top speed for Wednesday's usual parade of personalities—will bring night baseball in the Pacific Coast League as its high light.

The night baseball broadcast is to be from KMTR, five evenings in the week beginning tonight at 8:15. The nights excepted are Sunday and Monday, when there are no games. This is KMTR's second year of such broadcasts from Wrigley Field with that favorite of baseball announcers, Oscar Reichow, at the microphone.

Along with this sports feature Tony Canzoneri, lightweight champion of the pugilistic world, will listen attentively tonight to the outcome of the Tod Morgan-Cecil Payne fight at the Olympic Auditorium. It promises to be a real battle and an interesting one over the air and is to be heard over KFVB at 9:30 tonight.

For the other offerings see Today's High Lights.
