Monday on radio: A song recital over Columbia featuring Barbara Maurel, contralto—a new series featuring Morton Downey and the Camel Orchestra—and last with a laugh—KFRC's Blue Monday Jamboree.

Barbara Maurel will be heard over KHJ at 4:30 p.m. in a song recital accompanied by the New World Symphony. Old-time songs will be included in her repertoire.

The premier performance of the new six-day week Camel series, over KHJ at 7:30 p.m., will feature Morton Downey, Tony Wons, Jacques Renard and his new Camel Orchestra. This is said to be an unusual program in that it comprises three outstanding entertainers who have heretofore been featured on the Columbia network. On this gala premier performance, Morton Downey will introduce the new theme song "Carolina Moon." Wons will do a specialty in addition to his duties as master of ceremonies.

Tonight is Hawaiian Night with soft-speaking guitars, chanting music, songs of the islands—believe it or not that this is the theme of KFRC's Blue Monday Jamboree over KHJ from 8 to 10 p.m. "The actual eruption of a volcano" is promised by the Deep Dramatic Stock Company in its play of Hawaii, "A Bird of Paradise." As they say, "the first time the eruption of a volcano has ever been reproduced on the air," believe it or not.
