BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Monday, as is its habit, comes around again today freighted with plenty of interest to the radio fan.

LEE BARNES.

Those who are trekking to the high places for a vacation and intend to be "real children of nature" may not make a mistake by tuning in on KECA at 12:15 noon. A typical interview of a forest ranger by a "tenderfoot" camper may give you a few ideas that will save a lot of grief up in the altitudes. While if you've a yen for light patter, why not the Three Bakers, a Columbia highlight, KHJ at 5 tonight? Theoretically jumping from Africa to Broadway, the Three Bakers find adventures on the Gay White Way as exciting as those in the jungle. Lively dance tunes under the direction of Billy Artzt will add to the gayety of their return to Broadway.

And then there are those who in the throes of romance, like Morton Downey, KHJ at 7:30 brings him in a host of songs, including "Rock Me in the Cradle Kalua," "An Old Melody" and "After the Dance."

Concert lovers will dial KFI at 6 tonight when Stromberg-Carlson's hour over N.B.C. offers the influence of the Moors on the music of Spain. The colorful "Malaguena" from Moskowski's "Boabdil," interpreted by the Rochester Civic Orchestra, opens the hour.

And then the Blue Monday Jamboree over KHJ at 8 tonight. KFRC sends its wild men down, tipping the moon about with a program dedicated to "Honeymooning." And, of course, the Deep Dramatic Stock Company offers its own ruinous interpretation of Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew"—so let's laugh a bit.
