Two hours of gayety and a half-hour of national tribute to the ships of war that plied the Straits of Dover during the World War may warrant your dial.

SEC. OF WAR ADAMS

For the past two Wednesdays, the Los Angeles Breakfast Club invited us out "with the birds, bees and sunshine" and then they had to stay indoors and frolic. Today over KFVB at 8 a.m.

they promise two hours of fun from the Pyramid Cafe—Russ Colombo and His Pyramid Orchestra—and a host of cafe entertainers.

On the more serious side of the dial, KHJ at 11:30 a.m., Columbia sends the ceremonies attending the unveiling of the Dover Patrol Monument. While complete details of the program are not available, Secretary of the Navy Adams and other notables will be present. Tribute will be paid to the Navy branches of both British and American arms. The broadcast will originate in New York City.
