While Southland broadcast fans are seeking plenty of shade today, grown-ups and youngsters in the East will be devoting their attention to a golf championship and a marble tournament.

KHJ at 9:45 o'clock this morning offers a "law by law" account of the final matches in the National Boys' Marble Tournament at Ocean City, N. J., with more than 100 young marble experts, selected from fifty-five cities, competing. If the microphones are placed so as to pick up some of the chatter incident to juvenile competition you may find it enjoyable.

At 1 this afternoon Columbia, through KHJ, is to bring a play-by-play account of the Ryder Cup golf matches in which eight leading American professionals will oppose eight British golfers at the Scioto Country Club, Columbus, O. Ted Husing, sports announcer, will give the play-by-play account. Among the entrants are Capt. Walter Hagen, Johnny Farrell, Gene Sarazen and Leo Diegel—so you will be following a real tournament.

Turning from marbles and golf balls, here's a new one. KFI at 7:30 p.m. is to present "The Fearful Seven." Merton Moth and his noiseless glider, Michael Mosquito—brief glimpses into the home lives of Fanny Fly, Frankie Flea, Grandpa Roach and their friends. This is a N.B.C. offering and they promise about a mosquito the broadcast will be the comedy element will predominate. If there's anything funny be a miracle.
