BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Reaching over the Atlantic to the little town of Bad Homburg, Germany, radio will attempt to bring with its wealth of local programs a concert under the baton of Irving Scherke, music critic of the Paris edition of the Chicago Tribune.

This will come to you over KECA at 12:15 noon. The program will be transmitted by the Reichs Rundfunk Gesellschaft to the R.C.A. experimental short-wave receiving station at Riverhead, L. I.

Switching back into the early morning hours, the Los Angeles Breakfast Club frolic bids for your dial with two hours devoted to speakers and entertainment (KFWB.) Tommy Weber's boys start their concert with a bang at 8 sharp to be followed during the morning with everything from Sid Grauman to a "Swedish Nightingale."

For concerts, there is a wealth of them in the high lights, while those desiring something a "bit different," why not listen to Prof. Lindsley in his reading of "The Gusher," a comedy dialogue, by Charles Loomis. Picking up the programs for a laugh or two over something "just silly," Columbia's "The Three Doctors" at 11:30 or "The Nit Wits" at 6:30 may give you a smile or two, both coming over the Don Lee station, KHJ.
