

WATER FROLIC ON RADIO TODAY

Boys and Boats to Splash in Lake Michigan

Symphony Under the Stars
on Air Tonight

Spotlight Revue Promises
Good Entertainment

The Times Forum, KHJ, at 1:30 p.m. Hollywood Song Writers Revue.

World-wide News 7 a.m., 12:30, 5:20 and 10 p.m.

Saturday is always a good day on radio.

You will be tempted to your dial fairly early when KHJ broadcasts Ted Husing's description of the water carnival at Bay City, Mich.
This day of the competition will be taken up with diving and the racing of 120 motor boats of all classes.
Last year five world's records were broken, so enthusiasts of water sports, here is your spot. Concerts and plays dominate the evening hours with the Symphony Under the Stars at Hollywood Bowl perhaps the most acceptable to music lovers.

This morning at 11:15 o'clock KHJ switches its controls to the Columbia Broadcasting System, and if it is a warm day you may feel cooler listening to boys and boats splashing the waters of Lake Michigan.

While no details are available of the repertoire at Hollywood Bowl, KFI invites you to the concert at 8:30 o'clock tonight.

For variety—two plays—another blast of merriment from KHJ's Merrymakers and NBC's Associated Spotlight Revue promise to toss in stars galore.

You'll find it all in the High Lights.
