Children Particularly Keen About Their Antics

The Times Forum, KHJ, at 1:30 p.m. Dr. Phillip M. Lovell, editor of Care of the Body in the Sunday Times Magazine. World-Wide News, 7 a.m., 12:30, 5:50 and 10 p.m. (Resume of Clark murder trial on the 12:30 and 5:50 news periods.)

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Today marks the first anniversary of Black and Blue, KHJ's detectives, who have delighted thousands of children and grownups with their awkward attempts to solve crime.

In the year Black and Blue have received approximately 250,000 letters from children and grown-ups asking for the Sherlock Holmes detective caps. While they cannot prove it, the folks at KHJ folks at KHJ suspect that many in the adult audience have borrowed the caps from Willie or Susie, sneaked into the bedroom and posed before the mirror—just to see how they might look as the story-book-type detective.

Congratulations are in order to Charles Forsythe and Len Wright for giving the youngsters plenty to laugh about. A child is an exacting critic and to hold its attention through a loud-speaker is an accomplishment shared by few radio entertainers. Parents unquestionably will join their youngsters in wishing for the continued success of Black and Blue, for the ability to keep the average child in one place for five seconds, particularly during vacation days, is a real achievement.

So here's to more thunder, burlesque and adventure, Mr. Black and Mr. Blue.
