Tuesday on the radio is talent almost exclusively restricted to the home-town stations. No honorable this and that from Berlin, Bagdad or Cross-Corners, Iowa—just a scattering of excellent concerts—some variety—and of personalities. We find but one—an old-time film favorite, Anita Stewart, in song recital.

ANITA STEWART

Two of radio's outstanding concert pianists will be heard in recital tonight—oddly enough, too, both of these artists made their first debut on the air over KHJ in the early days. At 5:15 o'clock this afternoon—KHJ will present Mona Content in a rare blending of the classic and popular composition.

Anita Stewart. This film star of the past is to be the guest artist of Raymond Paige and his orchestra over KHJ at 8:15 p.m. Anita is to include "Come to Me," "One Little Raindrop" and "L'Amour Toujours" in her salute to radio-land.
