The Los Angeles Breakfast Club with most of the kids in "Our Gang," Nick Lucas, the crooning troubadour, and Mickey Walker will present a melange of kids, mandolins and boxing gloves.

Mark that down as Wednesday in radio. Even if the children get a headache because the Los Angeles Breakfast Club dedicates its program to the youngsters because it is the last Wednesday before school opens—parents will draw a breath of relief—and should dial in KFVB at 8 o'clock this morning. "Chubby," Shirley Jean Rickard and Mary Ann Johnson are sure to be there—and elder notables too, including Miss I. A. R. Wyke, British novelist; Dr. Bruce Baxter, Dean Meredith's Fast Steppers and the Durham Trio.

Each Wednesday evening, the Columbia Broadcasting System passes to KHJ at 6 a.m. a stage or screen artist; from their New York studios. Tonight it is to be Nick Lucas, the crooning troubadour, his mandolin and a bouquet of songs, new and old. Nick will include the song he made famous, "Tiptoe Through the Tulips," also "That's My Desire." Freddie Rich and his orchestra stir up a melody of tunes from "The Band Wagon," "The Roundtowners." As a tip KHJ whispers. "A fifteen minutes that's worth your time."

Which brings us to Mickey Walker over KFI at 6:30. Mickey has been voted by many boxing writers as the best fighter at any weight in the ring today. In answer to questions propounded by Grantland Rice, Walker will tell listeners of dramatic incidents in his interesting career which started more than a decade ago.

And, after the kids, and Nick and Mickey, a wealth of concerts are to be found in the High Lights.
