Capt. John Cook never had to run a more varied gamut of Indian clubs than radio fans are offered tonight in programs ranging from a talk by Secretary of Labor Doak to the running out of Columbia's "Show Boat" gangplank where you're invited to be in on an old-time melodrama seeming with villains, wronged heroines, suspenses, tears and curses.

At 5:30 p.m. Columbia, through KHJ, offers "Cleaning Up the Nation," a talk from Washington, D. C., by William N. Doak, Secretary of Labor. This is the second in Columbia's 1931-1932 Forum broadcasts which, from week to week, will bring distinguished political personalities to the microphone to discuss topics of national significance.

WILLIAM N. DOAK

If you'll let your dial run on "The Gypsy's Warning" is the thrilling melodrama at 6 tonight. Here's the blurb from KHJ: "The hero will be what a what a hero. Every crucial crisis will be fraught with tense suspense warranted to tear your heart, but she has a moral, ah, what's a moral." Dial at your own risk.

And after an evening of concerts, KHJ's Merrymakers and KFI's Associated Spotlight Revue unleash a variety of sense and nonsense, singers, comedians, vaudeville stars, and they'll let everything run loose.
