Laddies to Broadcast From
New York City

Illustrated Lectures Renewed
This Morning

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT
The air waves today surge in with a wealth of entertainment, in fact, a flood of concert music with John Charles Thomas, Ruth Etting, and even a uniformed Firemen's Chorus from New York bobbing up throughout the day.
The fire laddies clamber up the air ladder with fifteen minutes of song over KHJ at 11:15, which comes to you from New York City over the Columbia Broadcasting System, and if they can put up as good a brand of artistry as our local Firemen's Orchestra does, more power to them.
Students of music as well as concert lovers will welcome the return of the Standard School of Broadcast over KFI at 11 this morning. This series of musically illustrated lectures will be heard every Thursday morning while the Standard Symphony Concert, under the baton of Gaetano Cappola, every Thursday evening over the same station at 7:30 offers a half-hour of symphony classics.

New programs? Here's one rambling down from KFRC to be sent out over KHJ at 9 tonight. Listen to this: "Each program will not only be out of the ordinary, but will be entirely different; old-time minstrel shows, modern sophisticated comedy of the black-out type; there will be productions composed of the very finest of what is considered the most modern in music." They promise "Plenty of surprises."
And we'll have to tell you all about the other folks coming West in the Highlights.
