Woes of Stenographer to Be Comedy Plot on KFRC

The Times Forum: KHJ at 1:30 p.m. John Gallagher, Chicago correspondent for The Times, "Radio News Vending." World-wide news, 7 a.m., 12:45, 5:20 and 10:05 p.m.

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Hearts that palpitated when U.S.C. tangled with the Oregon Cougars Saturday had a rest over Sunday, but we'll all be tangled up in the world's series again today at 10 a.m. So the wind has blown baseball and the Blue Monday Jamboree into our laps as—typifying

What about baseball? With the Cards and the Athletics one up, today's game will be a hummer. Listen to Ted Husing or Graham McNamee today; it should be a wild game and they'll have a tough time keeping their feet and their tonsils on the proper wave length. Both KFI and KHJ switch to the ball park—the former at 10:15—the latter at 10 sharp—and just try to tempt a baseball bug to listen to a tenor at that time. Just try.

When the bets are paid and the losers have a headache—perhaps KFRC's "Blue Monday Jamboree" at 8 tonight over KHJ will smooth the furrowed brow. With "Three Little Girls in Blue" scheduled for the Deep Dramatic Stock Company; with Eb and Zeb all set to engage a stenographer for their general store—well, KFRC tells us "All of the comedy, and as far as possible the music, will relate to the lives and work of stenographers."

And if you think a stenographer's life is a happy one—try typing this column—the steno's life is fraught with everything from insufficient fund checks from her boss—to runs in her stocking because her chair's busted.

So—on to the High Lights.
