BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

The Tujunga Woman's Club has been declared winner of an interesting community contest held by KHJ.

Sixteen communities of Southern California competed in the presentation of fifteen-minute programs over KHJ, from 7 to 7:15 Tuesdays and Fridays. Tomorrow at 12:45 Lewis Allen Weiss, manager of KHJ, will present a silver loving cup to Mrs. E. M. Slattery, president of the Tujunga Woman's Club, signifying that that organization received the largest number of letters of commendation for its presentations. The contest developed personality plus in radio.

Another of the nation's notables is to go on the air tonight—ex-President Calvin Coolidge. He will speak from his library at Northampton on "Life Insurance and Economic Depressions." We hope Silent Cal does "not choose to run" from the microphone: KECA at 6:45 p.m.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

So there's a woman's club and an ex-President. In addition, at 10 o'clock in the morning, both KFI and KHJ will present the fourth game of the world's series with a play-by-play description from the time the first ball is whipped over the plate.

If you're in a fighting mood—tune in on KFVB at 9:30 tonight for Claude Varner and Kid Francis at the Olympic. Kid Francis is the world's third-ranking featherweight. There's a playlet, too, in the High Lights—so read them over.
