BY JOHN S. DAGGETT
 Radio takes time out today to salute our old friend, Christopher Columbus, recover from its week-end riot of baseball and football broadcasts—and winds up the day with the Blue Monday Jamboree—dedicated, unfortunately—at least unfortunately for Mr. Columbus—to the explorer.

First up—to signify the day—the Columbia Broadcasting System over KHJ at 9:30 this morning—sends thirty minutes titled "Columbus Day Celebration"—this will consist of the cream of the eastern radio art.

After relieving the postman of many, many envelopes—we find they are all devoted to tonight's concert—KHJ at 5:15—and we'll let you read the gist of it yourself: "The whole range of seventeenth century music, from the founding of modern opera in Italy to the great religious and symphonic school of Bach and Handel, will be surveyed by Leopold Stokowski and the Philadelphia Orchestra in the first concert of the season—KHJ at 5:15 tonight."

Following is the complete program:

- Excerpts from "Orfeo".....Monteverdi
 - Toccata

And lest you take life too seriously, dial KHJ at 8 tonight. KFRC is sending down its Blue Monday Jamboree—with the following adjectives: "The effort will be made to discover new radio stars for subsequent Jamboree programs. In addition to the Jamboree regulars six amateurs will be heard on the program. The Deep Dramatic Stock Company will present "Amateur Night in the Squidville Opry House"—and—but why go on—when the clock strikes 8—they'll celebrate Mr. Columbus's Atlantic trek.
