BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Well, here's another day. You've read about the murders and the national problems and now we'll tell you what's on the air.

How would you like to hob-nob with five governors? KHJ at 10:15 o'clock this morning will present a Columbia system forty-five-minute special from the Chicago conference of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater Association. Out here the Great Lakes don't annoy us, yet we may learn something by listening in.

As you leave the supper table—why not tune in on the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra—KHJ at 6 p.m.? Then, if you want more concert music, the Standard Symphony Orchestra will be heard over KFI at 8:15.

And, since this is the children's season with Santy Claus 'n' everything, I wouldn't miss the American School of the Air over KHJ at 11:30 this morning. The program is to include folklore and folk songs—and a child's playlet—"Snow White and Red Rose."

So, on to the high lights.
