Well, what's on radio today?

First up in the morning, high school students may attend the American School of the Air. Then why not the United States Marine Band in a noontime concert? For opera lovers there will be thirty minutes of Light Opera Gems. Uncle John's Children's Hour is another feature and we've poured a host of hits into the High Lights.

Over KHJ at 11:30 this morning Thomas E. Campbell, president of the Civil Service Commission and ex-Governor of Arizona, will offer a vocational guidance talk on the American School of the Air. His subject will be "Civil Service," and he will describe the qualifications and requirements necessary, explaining what positions are open to girls as well as boys.

Musical music seldom is amiss at the noon hour and KHJ at 12 will present the United States Marine Band from Washington. This program should put "war" in your step returning to work or shopping. But for those not partial to brass, KHJ at 1 o'clock offers Columbia's half-hour—Light Opera Gems. So, there's food for the calloused and sensitive souls.

Slipping into the evening, there's a Christmas offering that should appeal. KHJ at 6 points to the Children's Hour featuring "King Arthur", Stevens, "Honey Boy" Charles Leslie Hill, and the Collins Twins—Ellen and Katherine. As you fade out this half hour—KHJ at 6:30 schedules the Los Angeles Quartet with Christmas carols from various countries.

And every other radio station has something equally good to offer—so on to the High Lights.
