BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

A trip to Boston for a talk with Will Hays, then breaking into the Santa Claus realm—a trip to Toyland—that's the morning's radio grist.

As an afternoon feature there'll be real Hawaiian music, to be transmitted by N.B.C. from the golden islands.

And for the evening, the day's schedule includes concerts and varieties you'll like.

KHJ at 10 o'clock this morning invites you to a members' luncheon of the Boston Chamber of Commerce. Will Hays, who will be introduced to members and listeners by Frederick S. Snyder, president of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, is to discuss "A Central Entertainment Built on Light, Sound and Color." It is possible Hays may touch on the status of the motion-picture industry in the prevailing industrial adjustments—and that means something to Los Angeles.

And here's a chance for the children (and even the oldsters) to peek into Santa Claus's workshop. The American School of the Air—KHJ at 11:30—will open the portals to Toyland.

We'd all like to hear an American interpretation of real Hawaiian music—and it sweeps over the broad Pacific from Hawaii—KECA at 1:15. E. A. Bolfe will direct a native orchestra and chorus from the studios of KGU, Honolulu. In addition to the orchestra and chorus, several Hawaiian vocal and instrumental soloists will contribute to the broadcast.

World-wide news comes to you each day with its burden of wars, murders and personalities. Today

The Times Forum, KHJ, at 1:30 p.m., will bring to the microphone Superior Judge Valentine, one-time arbiter of traffic violations and now dispenser of justice in marital disputes. "Divorce" is to be his topic—thirty minutes devoted to what passes before his bench—the whys and wherefores of marital wrecks.
