

RADIO FEATURES TO MAKE DEBUT

Tibbett Will Broadcast First of Concert Series

Orchestra and Alex Gray on New Music Period

Roth Quartet High Light of Morning Programs

The Times Forum, KHJ, at 1:30 p.m.
Sol Cohan, violinist; June Brandon, contralto. Recital.
World-wide news, 7 a.m., 12:30, 5:20 and 10 p.m.
Steve Donoghue, famous English jockey, winner of six English derbies; Packy McFarland, ex-lightweight will be interviewed on the 12:30 news period.

The first Monday of the New Year brings us a variety of features, including the debut of two national network features.

The first high spot is "Music That Satisfies," a Columbia contribution sponsored by the makers of a cigarette. This new series will come to you over KHJ at 7:30 p.m., and includes Nat Shilkret and his thirty-five-piece orchestra, with Alex Gray, baritone, with screen. Alex Gray sang the leading role in several Broadway successes. This special will be heard six nights a week.

And here's another national manufacturer who pours money into radio by sponsoring none other than bett, Metropolitan song star. KFI at 8:30 tonight offers the first of these recitals. For the first time in history a Metropolitan opera singer has signed a contract for a sustained series of concerts via radio. The broadcasts are to be at least thirteen in number. These concerts will reach all points of the United States, Hawaii and Canada.

Going back into the morning hours, do not miss the Roth Quartet of Budapest, over KHJ at 11 o'clock. Roth was concert master of the State Opera in Berlin, where the quartet was organized in 1923.

What the Blue Monday Jamboreadors will do to the Lil' Ol' City of New York should be a caution. The radio sidewalks will resound.
