

INTERNATIONAL BROADCAST SET

"Hello, Europe" Feature of Day's Radio List

George Washington Brought by School of Air

Blue Monday Jamboreadors in Bedtime Program

The Times Forum.
 Canceled to permit International Broadcast over KHJ.
 World-wide News, 7 a.m., 12:30, 5:20 and 10 p.m.

Radio stretches its airy hands across the Atlantic today, pouring into the ears of our European neighbors a Columbia special. Lawrence Tibbett in the second of a series of recitals is another feature, and the Blue Monday Jamboree to send you to bed with a shattered conception of the Arabian Nights.

Better not miss, though, KHJ at 11:30 this morning, when radio wields the pointer in the American School of the Air. A depiction of the life of George Washington, dramatizing one of the first official expeditions which Washington made into the interior of the States to demand the evacuation of the Ohio Valley by the French. Primarily presented for the children—we oldersters will find entertainment and information in each of these lessons.

Pushing up its collective window at 1:15 this afternoon, all Europe will listen to a Columbia Broadcasting feature titled "Hello, Europe," a program flashed to Great Britain and the continent with the cream of the nation's stars of the air.

Freddie Rich and his Columbians will play a symphonic jazz arrangement of "Way Down South in Heaven;" Morton Downey, Tony Wons and Jacques Renard's Orchestra will follow. Others of the array of talent will be Toscha Seidel, Mills Brothers, Boswell Sisters, Kate Smith and a host of talent Europe has yet to hear. All of this can be shared in by you by tuning KHJ at 1:15.

All hope of preserving the beauties of the ancients is to be dashed aside when the Blue Monday Jamboreadors essay an operetta titled "The Arabian Nights." Flying carpets, bricks, and a melée of nonsense unloaded by the Deep Dramatic Stock Company will leave you bereft of several childish fancies you've held concerning "The Arabian Nights." Proving there just ain't no Santy Claus nor lamps to chiropract with gilded returns.
