Dr. Philip M. Lovell, editor of "Care of the Body" in the Sunday Times Magazine.

Kyle D. Palmer, political editor of The Times.

World-wide news, 7 a.m., 12:30, 5:20 and 10 p.m.

BY WILLIAM HAMILTON CLINE

Kyle D. Palmer, political editor of The Times, will again be on the forum program at 1:30 this afternoon, when he is to interpret the new registration law, and what one may or may not do under it. On the same period there will be a talk by Dr. Phillip M. Lovell, editor of "Care of the Body" in The Times Sunday Magazine—a regular Friday forum feature.

And for entertainment, why not a prelude to The Times Forum—KHJ at 1 o'clock? Concert lovers will not want to miss the anniversary program of Columbia's Light Opera Gems. A half-hour of light classics flowing in from Columbia's eastern studios with soloists you'll enjoy.

A stampede of high lights opens with Sylvia, Hollywood's menace to ladies with aggravating shadows, and includes thirty minutes aboard the S.S. Mariposa, whose decks will boast everything from a Japanese prima donna to a big game hunter. Then there will be a choice at sleepy time between a slumber hour induced by soft music or the thud of padded fists at the Hollywood Legion Stadium. At any rate, they're going to try to put somebody to sleep in both instances.

And—so to the High Lights.
