BY WILLIAM HAMILTON CLINE

From the first crack of dawn when Arthur Henderson raps his gavel at the disarmament conference at Geneva, Switzerland, to when one begins to yawn about 3:30 as Kolb and Dill make their debut, there is plenty on the air. Unfortunately, no word of the disarmament conference (KHJ and KFI at 6:30 this morning) was received by the stations until late Friday afternoon, obviously too late to appear in Monday's Times. It is to be hoped that future conference sessions will be released with adequate time notice.

Scanning the dial, music lovers will want to stop on KHJ at 11:30, where the American School of the Air presents an all-German composers' half-hour. At the luncheon hour (12:30) KECA finds the Coconut Grove stars moving down to the Biltmore for the Advertising Club luncheon. The program will last one hour, presenting Jimmie Grier's Orchestra, Loyce Whiteman, Donald Novis and the Three Cheers. Unloosing a hectic series of interesting entertainments after nightfall, embracing everything from a classic concert (KHJ at 8:15) to a prizefight in which Cecil Payne and Manuel Villa hold the main spot. We choose to listen to our old friends, Kolb and Dill. Replacing the Gilmore Circus with its lions, peanuts and monkeys, these comedians make their debut on the air. They will be found running a delicatessen store and to make their work interesting have taken a baby to raise. KECA at 8:30 tonight draws up its curtain of the air, recalling Gov. Rolph, presenting Kolb and Dill, the delicatessen store and the baby. Radio's motherless home. The Times Forum at 1:30 this afternoon over KHJ presents as your host the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce. In the half hour will be found a wealth of music by the Patrick and Marsh Orchestra. The speaker of the day will be Judge Pope. "How to Reduce Traffic Fatalities" will be the subject of his talk and none who dodge traffic tags or trucks should pass this by.
