BY WILLIAM HAMILTON CLINE

It will rain radio throughout today and tonight. A playlet for the children titled, "The Enchanted Frog," three visits to the Olympic Winter Games at Lake Placid; a bit of news from William Hard at the Geneva Conference; the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, and a galaxy of the nation's most outstanding motion-picture stars (their names remain a mystery) are but a few of the high lights.

Stepping into the classroom of the American School of the Air (KHJ at 11:30) young pupils in the schools of the country will hear one of their favorite performers sing a group of songs chosen from the folk music of various countries. Following the musical part of the program, the children will hear a short dramatization based on the story of "The Enchanted Frog." This little play will be acted by young children.

OLYMPIC GAMES NEWS

At 11:15 (KFI) at 12 noon (KHJ) and at 1:45 (KFI) the bobsled and ski jumping events of the Olympic Winter Games will come over the national radio networks. Intervale Jump and Mt. Hoevenberg, near Lake Placid, will be the centers of these broadcasts.

A treasure chest of pleasure is to be found in today's radio dial and high lights. In addition to the mysterious movie stars, there is Lillian Roth, star of "Vanities," the Burbank Singers' Club and, for a chuckle, a whiff of KHJ's "Laughing Gas" should help us all carry on.

THE TIMES FORUM

The Times Forum period at 1:30 this afternoon over KHJ will present Marian Manners, head of The Times Household Economics department, who will give some timely hints on parties for St. Valentine's Day, including table decorations, favors and special dishes. Also, Fred Hogue of The Times editorial staff will continue his enlightening discussion of "Problems of the Pacific" especially as they concern the present Sino-Japanese situation.
